

In WA, seafood can travel enormous distances from point of harvest to the plate. It is important to understand this when we talk about:

Fresh and Frozen, Local and Imported.

Fresh Fish is fish that when caught, is put whole into an ice slurry aboard the boat. From here it is processed, (either gutted, gilled and scaled, or filleted) and sold to restaurants without freezing.

Frozen Fish is fish, that when caught, is immediately processed, filleted and snap frozen. This is often done on board the fishing trawler. Otherwise, the process is completed at on shore processing facilities.

Local Fish from a Fish Pub perspective is fish caught in West Australian waters. We will use product from interstate when necessary. You will be sure to know if we do.

Imported Fish and seafood is essential to meet Australian demand for seafood, a demand which outstrips the supply Australian fisheries can provide. It also offers premium fish at a price point many people can enjoy.

The imported product that we use is from reputable West Australian companies and all fish can be traced back to the trawlers that caught the fish. The harvest is snap frozen to the same exacting standards as is locally caught product.

The Fisher Story

Brothers John and Joe Fisher began their Clancy's journey in 1988 when they took over the lease of Clancy's Bar and Tavern in Fremantle. There are now four fish Pubs in the family located in Fremantle, Canning Bridge, City Beach and Dunsborough.

They've recently celebrated 30 years in the industry - which is a pretty rare thing and they are really proud of that!!

We are a family business in the truest sense - 3 generations of Fisher's currently work in and for the venues. You'll be bound to see a Fisher elder, niece, nephew and even grandchild floating around!!
